Introduction

In this making excuses activity, students make excuses in response to requests, invitations and accusations using a variety of phrases.

Procedure

Divide the students into pairs (Student A and B).

Give each student a corresponding worksheet.

First, students match requests, invitations and accusations with the correct excuses.

Exercise A - Answer key

1. j 2. e 3. a 4. i 5. b
6. c 7. h 8. d 9. g 10. f

Next, students underline the phrases from the first exercise that are used to make excuses.

Exercise B - Answer key

Sorry, I...
Oh, I would, but...
Sorry, I can't. I...
I'm sorry. I...
I'd be happy to, but...
I'd love to help, but...

Elicit other possible phrases for making excuses from the students, e.g. 'Actually, I can't right now because...'

After that, in pairs, students take it in turns to read out the requests, invitations and accusations listed to their partner who gives an excuse for each one.

Students then write their partner's excuse in the space provided.

Finally, review the excuses the students gave for each item as a class.

Student A
A. Match the requests, invitations and accusations with the correct excuses.
